Dear SDS Silva:

In our pursuit for quality education and the promotion and enhancement of research culture in basic education, Cor Jesu College, through the Graduate School Department and the Research and Publication Office (RPO), is planning to extend its expertise in the field of research by offering a training entitled "Strategies in Teaching Quantitative Research: A Seminar-Workshop for Senior High School Teachers". This training is a response to the clamor of some teachers both in the public and private senior high schools for a special training in teaching Practical Research 2 subject, which is quantitative research. The training will be held on May 26, 2017 at the AV Hall of Cor Jesu College, Digos City.

This training has the following objectives: 1.) enhance knowledge on quantitative research; 2.) refocus the pedagogy in teaching quantitative research to senior high school students; 3.) calibrate teaching strategies in quantitative research; and 4.) learn best practices in teaching qualitative research.

The seminar is limited only to 30 SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL participants on a first come-first serve basis. A registration fee of 750.00 pesos is required to cover the food (2 snacks and lunch), materials, honorarium, certificates and other expenses. For booking and pre-registration, please visit or contact the Research and Publication Office at 553-2433 local 415.

In this connection, we are asking your office for the endorsement of the said training.

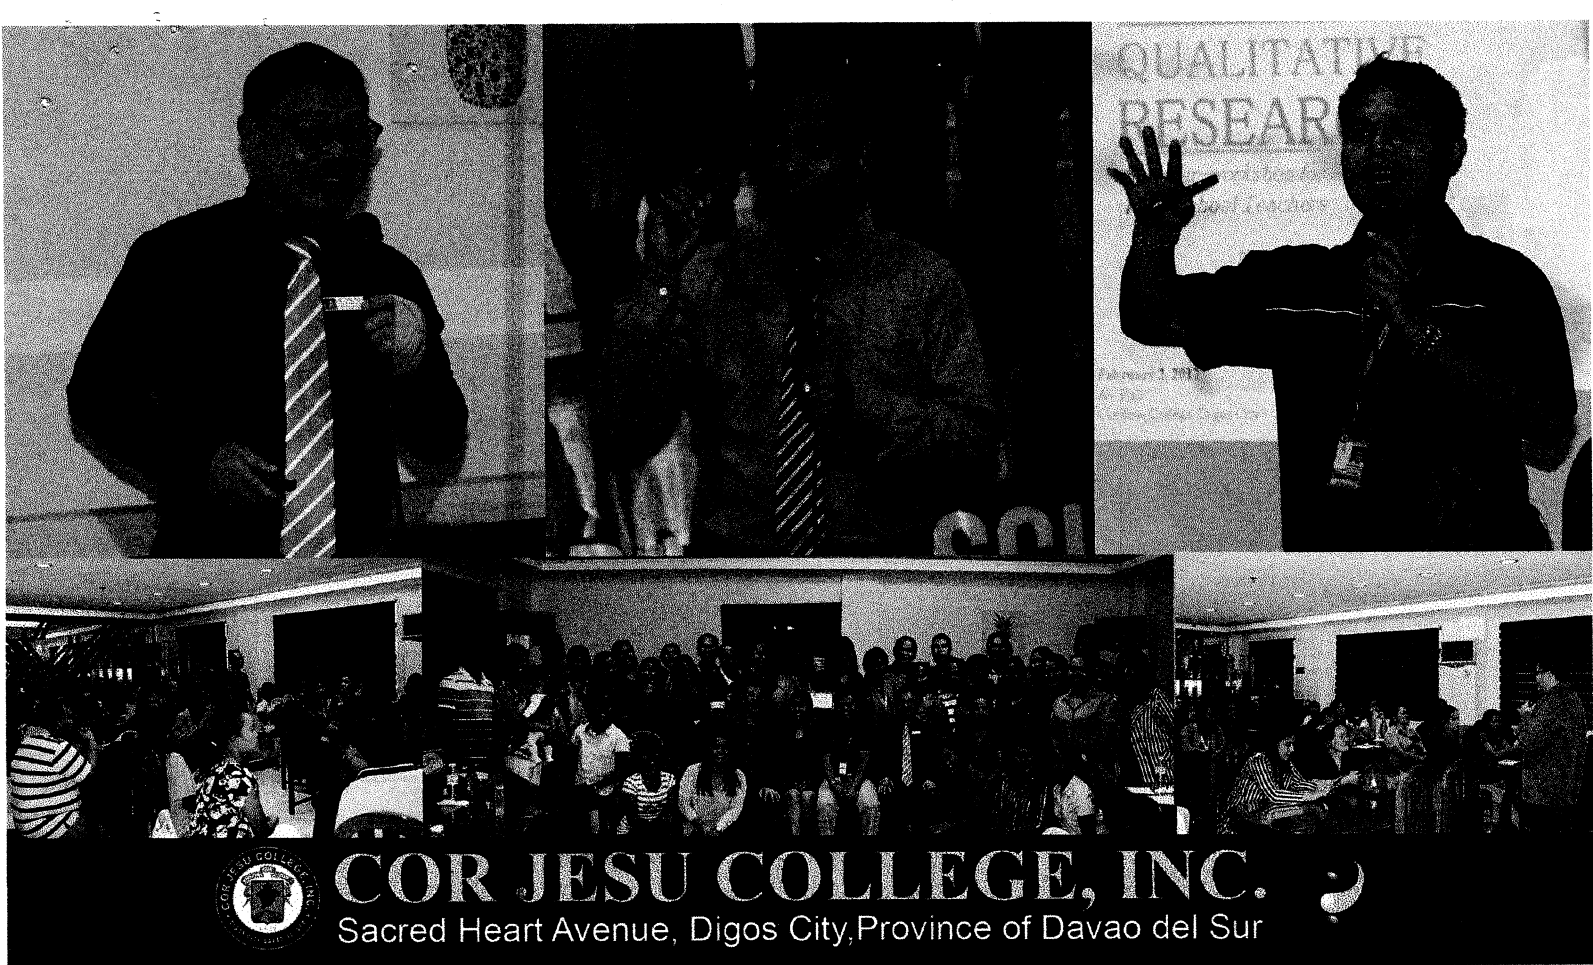

Thank you in advance.

Truly yours,

ALEX D. NIEZ, ED.D., PH.D.
Vice President for Academic Affairs

RATIONALE

With the addition of Grade 11 in the senior high school, some subjects in the tertiary level are downloaded. For the second semester of SY 2016-2017, Practical Research 1 (Qualitative Research) was offered. Some teachers teaching this subject found it hard to teach the subject. In response, Cor Jesu College offered its services by conducting a training for teachers teaching Practical Research 1. For school year 2017-2018, Grade 12 will commence and one subject to be offered in the first semester is Practical Research 2 (Quantitative Research). Again, Cor Jesu College responds to the needs for teachers teaching this subject. Just like the previous training, this one will highlight on the strategies in teaching quantitative research to senior high school students.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the training are to:

- 1.) enhance knowledge on quantitative research;
- 2.) refocus the pedagogy in teaching quantitative research to senior high school students;
- 3.) calibrate teaching strategies in quantitative research; and
- 4.) learn best practices in teaching quantitative research.

PARTICIPANTS & PAYMENT

The seminar is limited only to 30 SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL participants on a first come-first serve basis. A registration fee of 750.00 pesos is required to cover the food (2 snacks and lunch), materials, honorarium, certificates and other expenses.
