OFFICIAL SEAL OF DEPED REGION XI

The stars are kept closely united that represent the 11 Schools Division Offices joined into a cohesive force to articulate the programs, activities and projects of the region.

The laurels herald all the initiatives and best practices of the region to greater heights of excellence and sustainability.

The torch with flames epitomizes the strong desire in search for knowledge and excellence. The body of the torch undertones by ethnic color represents the diversity of culture of the Indigenous People and Muslim in the community.

The inner circle alludes to the many distinct tropical fruits in Davao Region like the Durian, Banana and Pomelo. The banana's combination of the green and yellow speaks of the intricate transformation of the region. It has also the exotic flower "Waling-Waling" and has the highest peak, Mt. Apo which serves as a home to Philippine Eagle. It also brims with precious gem like gold. The vast ricefields illustrate the wide array of opportunities that the region has.

The texture of the name of the agency "Department of Education Region XI" is maroon which represents the official color of the region. This color reveals the character which can be attributed to the people of Davao region as warm, compassionate and loving.
