1. This is to require your attendance and participation to an Advocacy - Forum on Indigenous Peoples Education Program which will be conducted by the Department of Education-Digos City Division on November 29, 2016, from 8:00am to 5:00pm at Nakayama Function Center –Floor 2 (Mezanine), Mabini-Bataan Streets, Digos City.
2. In recognition of the right of Indigenous Peoples to a culturally rooted and responsive basic education, the Department of Education (DepEd) adopted the Indigenous Peoples Education Curriculum Framework (DepEd Order No. 32, s. 2015) which aims to provide guidance to schools and other education programs as they engage with indigenous communities in contextualizing the K to 12 Curriculum based on their respective educational and social contexts.

3. It is within this premise that the Department of Education expands and strengthens institutional and civil society linkages to ensure proper coordination, knowledge-sharing and sustainability of the Indigenous Peoples Education (IPEd) Program.
4. Your participation and involvement in this program through its various community engagement processes, mechanisms, and activities would contribute much to the journey of a culture-responsive education.
5. Travel, meals, and other expenses relevant to the conduct of the activity is charged to/reimbursable from the IPEd Program Support Fund 2016 (Division-downloaded) subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
6. For information and compliance.
