This April 8, 2019, Buncee US-based senior executive Eda Charmaine Gimenez will be coming over to Digos City to personally train teachers of Digos City Central Elementary regarding the applications of their software. She is also interested in the Adult Literacy System (ALS) program implementation in jails and rehabilitation centers. Buncee is an educational technology service provider based in New York in the United States.

In connection with Ms. Gimenez' visit on April 8, 2019 (Monday), you are hereby directed to attend a hands-on orientation of the Buncee software at Digos City Central Elementary School at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and the observation of classes at Digos City District Jail at 1:30 in the afternoon.

For your guidance and compliance.

WINNIE E. BATOON, EdD
Officer in Charge
Office of the Schools Division Superintendent
