The awards may be given during your school's Recognition Day or Closing/Graduation Exercises.

The CMLI will provide the Certificates. The medals are available at the CMLI Secretariat each amounting to TWO HUNDRED PESOS (Php 200.00) inclusive of mailing and handling expenses. The amount is inclusive of the model/students and A-1 Children annual membership fee.

Enclosed are the criteria for the selection of the awadee and the required forms. It would be a good idea to include in your selection committee certain civic leaders whose integrity is well-known in the community in order to make the project a school-community endeavor. A teacher, specifically assigned to take charge of this project must coordinate with the committee.

In the interest of the child and youth development, CMLI sincerely supports the school in giving due recognition to students who have rendered commendable performance and exhibiting morally upright image. It could be the start of something BIG!
