PROJECT DESIGN

TITLE OF ACTIVITY:

Two-Day "Usapan at Aksyon para sa ALS Ngayon" (USAPAN) for the Alternative Learning System (ALS), Balik Paaralan Para Sa Out-of-School Adult (BPOSA) Program Instructional Managers, ALS and Mobile Teachers, District ALS Coordinators, and Staff of the Division of Digos City on August 24-25, 2018, at Digos City National High School

RATIONALE:

The new ALS K to 12 Curriculum is expected to level the quality of education both the formal and the non-formal education systems. This will allow learners to move freely from one system to another, ensuring that more OSY and OSA learners are able to complete basic education and avail of the four (4) exits of education: employment, entrepreneurship, higher education, or middle-level skills development.

Thus, Alternative Learning System will conduct the said activity to provide updates on Alternative Learning System and share best practices to further enhance their knowledge and ability to come up with a better outputs.

OBJECTIVE:

To provide opportunity and knowledge to develop and strengthen the necessary skills for positive and adaptive behavior that enable their learners to deal effectively with the demands, challenges, experiences and situations of everyday life.
