GUIDELINES FOR THE DFSPG/SSG LOGO DESIGN CONTEST

I. Basic Information

The Division Federation of Supreme Pupil and Student Government of Digos City is an organization composed of all SPG in 36 Elementary Schools and SSG in 11 Secondary Schools and Annexes. It is the umbrella organization and the highest Pupil and Student governing body in the Division of Digos City.

II. Principles, Objective of SPG and SSG (DO No. 47, s. 2014)

Principles

- SPG / SSG shall have the power which emanates from the student body. It shall be an autonomous, unified, and the highest democratic representative of the student body.
- SPG / SSG shall uphold and adhere with the Mission Statement of the Department of Education "to protect and to promote the right of every Filipino to quality, equitable, culture-based and complete basic education" where "students learn in a child-friendly, gender-sensitive, safe and motivating environment".
- SPG / SSG is founded on the principles of participatory democracy, responsible servant-leadership, collaboration, unity, accountability, and efficiency in serving the student body
- SPG / SSG shall be committed in putting these values, principles, and ideals into action through academic, socio-civic, leadership programs and activities.

Objective

- SPG/SSG shall be the forefront of the students' rights and welfare, and shall be the model of the students' excellence, grounded on good character, and deep sense of moral values.
