Dear Dr. Batoon:

It is with great enthusiasm to know that your office is exploring possibilities of scholarships and other opportunities for the Division's teaching and non-teaching personnel with Cor Jesu College Graduate School.

In response to this great opportunity, we are offering 50% discount on tuition fee to all teaching and non-teaching staff of your division who will pursue graduate program currently offered by the school, namely: (1) Master of Arts in Education major in Educational Planning and Management; (2) Master of Arts in Education major in Teaching Mathematics; (3) Master in Library and Information Science; (4) Master in Public Administration major in Local Government Administration; (5) Master in Public Administration major in Organization and Management; and (6) Master in Business Administration.

If you feel that there are other needs that your teaching and non-teaching personnel need which we can possibly grant, please feel free to see or contact us.

Thank you and may God continue to bless our efforts.

Very truly yours,

Kirt Anthony R. Diaz, PhD

Sir:

Greetings from the City Division Office!

The Human Resource Development (HRD) Unit of the Schools Governance and Operations Division (SGOD) of the Schools Division of Digos City is actively pursuing developmental interventions for the Division personnel in line with the vision of the Division Education Development Plan (DEDP) 2018-2022 of producing highly competent, committed, empowered and compassionate public servants, and globally competent and value-laden learners.

Relative to this, the Division HRD personnel would like to see you to explore possibilities of scholarships in your school and other opportunities for the Division's teaching and non-teaching personnel that will foster partnership between DepEd and the private schools. We look forward to a positive response from your office.

With gratitude, I remain

Sincerely yours,
