Dear Ma'am,

Millions of Filipino suffers from mental health problems our youth of today shows number of suicide incidents, depression, anxiety disorders and other mental issues. Clearly this is a growing problem not only in our country but all over the world.

In this regards, the CMMS FILMS PRODUCTION Company made a feature film that advocates mental health to promote awareness to give hope and save lives. This is our way of reaching out to send a powerful message via entertainment that we have to start to talk about mental health issues and break the stigma that binds with it.

The movie in Titled "When Sadness Lingers" portrays the importance of family in understanding mental health and for one to be able to cope with everyday struggles in life.

Thank you. We are hoping that you will help us bring this movie to public and private schools. This can also be a fund raising for each schools. Proceeds of this movie screening will go to our brothers and sisters who suffered from mental health problem.

Hoping that you supports us in this significant endeavor, we look forward to hearing from you very soon.

Respectfully yours,

Anne A. Angus

Title: WHEN SADNESS LINGERS

LEAD ACTORS:
SYLVIA SANCHES
NONI BUENCAMINO

When AGNES' husband leaves her - for another man - she must not only cope with the shame of his betrayal but with her own growing schizophrenia as she sinks into a world of madness and despair -trying to heal the dark side of sadness that envelops the broken home which causes her son and daughter's troublesome lives.

This is a story about the importance of family dynamics in understanding mental health and for one to be able to cope on the daily basis.

Life does not have to be perfect what is important is we cope to live day by day..
