MEMORANDUM

To : Schools Division Superintendents
Heads of Public and Private Schools

Subject: 2022 BLENDED REGIONAL SCHOOLS PRESS CONFERENCE

Date : May 2, 2022

Pursuant to Republic Act (RA) No. 7079, also known as the Campus Journalism Act of 1991, and its Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) specifically Rule IX of Section 1, the Department of Education Regional Office XI, through the Curriculum and Learning Management Division (CLMD) shall conduct the Blended Regional Schools Press Conference (RSPC) dubbed as the Regional Conference on Campus Journalism in the 21st Century with the theme: "Pahayagang Pangkampus: Kaagapay sa Paghilom at Pagbangon ng Sambayanan" on May 23-27, 2022.

The conference aims to:

- capacitate the campus journalists with understanding of the importance of journalism by expressing it through different journalistic endeavors and approaches;
- sustain advocacy on social consciousness and environmental awareness;
- provide a venue for an enriching and learning experience for students interested in Journalism as a career;
- introduce the new RSPC event as exhibition ;
- promote responsible journalism, fair and ethical use of social media; and
- enhance journalistic competence through healthy and friendly competitions.

Participants to this 2022 Blended RSPC are the following

- Division first place winners (top 1) of the different individual writing contest in English and Filipino both elementary and secondary;
- Division first place winners in Radio Scriptwriting and Broadcasting, Collaborative Desktop Publishing in English and Filipino both elementary and secondary, TV Scriptwriting and Broadcasting and Online Publishing (for secondary level only)
- Student Publication Advisers;
- Division Journalism Coordinators;
- Board of Judges;
- Division and Regional Technical Working Group

GENERAL GUIDELINES AND MECHANICS
BLENDED REGIONAL SCHOOLS PRESS CONFERENCE
May 23-27, 2022

1. All individual events and Online Publishing shall be conducted virtually which will be supervised by two proctors from the Regional Technical Working Group.
2. The proctors will facilitate the contest, the collection and uploading of the outputs into the designated drive.
3. All group contest (Collaborative Desktop Publishing, Radio Script Writing and Broadcasting, and TV Script Writing and Broadcasting) except Online Publishing shall be conducted face-to-face. Contestants who are vaccinated are preferred.
4. To immerse the contestants with experiential journalism (gathering of data, organizing of data and broadcasting/ write-up of the news), a press conference shall be held as the basis for the content of Collaborative Publishing, Online Publishing, Radio Broadcasting and TV Broadcasting.
5. During the press conference, the resource person will give an opening statement. Afterwards, two members from every division (from any of the event - Elementary or Secondary) will be given the chance to ask a question and may add one (1) follow-up question. Each division must agree whom to field. They are urged to listen to the questions asked and the answers so as not to repeat the same question already answered.
6. All members of the team must stay in their designated area at the venue following the health protocols as they take note of the discussion. Only the photographer (for collab), and videographers for TV accompanied by director/ standupper may be allowed to roam around the venue but within the designated place allotted for them to take photos and videos. Violation of this item is subject for disqualification.
7. A live streaming of the press conference will be setup for the online publishing in a Facebook Closed Group Page.
8. Coverage in the production of outputs for Collaborative Publishing, Online Publishing, Radio Broadcasting and TV Broadcasting including its Infomercials must be based on the topics

CONTEST RULES FOR INDIVIDUAL WRITING CATEGORY
For the 2022 Blended Regional Schools Press Conference
May 23- 27, 2022

CONTEST RULES FOR INDIVIDUAL WRITING CATEGORY

Contest Schedule and Venue

1. All individual writing categories will be conducted from Day 1 to Day 3 of the competition. Refer to the schedule matrix for the specific date and time of each category.
2. Each division will allot (a) one conference room/hall where participants and school paper advisers can listen to virtual lectures and (b) one contest room exclusively for contest participants and facilitators only, which area is ideally adjacent to the conference room/hall. The distance of both venues may vary in some cases depending on the availability of such facilities. Any deviation from the rule shall be communicated beforehand with the regional organizers.

Contest Facilitators

1. The contest events will be managed and supervised by assigned contest proctors/facilitators. They are selected school paper advisers from different divisions. However, they are not allowed to facilitate their own divisions.
2. The contest facilitators shall converge at the regional office three days before the competition to discuss contest rules and procedures.
3. Before traveling to their assigned divisions, the contest facilitators will collect from the regional technical team the contest materials securely sealed in envelopes and which flap signed by the regional journalism supervisor. Along with the contest pieces are answer sheets where contestants write their compositions. Each contestant will receive two empty sheets (stapled).
4. In no circumstance that the envelopes will be opened before the actual contest.

Conduct of the Contest

1. Contest participants shall assemble in the conference room/ hall at least 30 minutes before each contest event.
2. Each division shall only send one contestant per category and medium.
3. Before the actual competition, the contest judge will conduct an hour of virtual lecture in the conference room/ hall. Division organizers and school paper advisers are allowed to attend the webinar.

4. After the virtual lecture, contest participants will be escorted to the contest room. Contestants are not allowed to bring their mobile phones, electronic devices (including smartwatches), and lecture notes to the contest room.
5. School paper advisers are strictly prohibited from entering the contest room. Division organizers may be allowed to enter the room upon the approval of the contest facilitators.
6. There will be a total of four contestants in the room at a time per category: two in elementary (English and Filipino) and two in secondary (English and Filipino).
7. The contest facilitator shall distribute the answer sheets first. Each contestant will receive two (2) empty sheets (stapled) and fill up the attached template by each participant before the start of the contest— to be detached by the contest proctors after the time allotted before the scanning of entries. Below is a sample template:

8. A contest facilitator, witnessed by a division organizer, shall open the envelope containing the contest materials in front of the participants. Before opening the envelope, the witness shall inspect it to make sure that the seal and the signature on the flap are secure. The witness can leave the venue once the envelope is opened.
9. As much as possible, every contest must commence simultaneously throughout the region. The regional technical team will instruct the contest facilitators on the starting and finishing time through a group chat. This will allow the division organizers and contest facilitators to address technical problems and other concerns before deciding on the actual contest time.
10. The contest piece or fact sheet distribution to the contestants will be done at the starting time set by the regional technical team and communicated via a group chat.

11. The contest facilitators shall inform the participants of the starting and finishing time. Contestants have one and a half hours to complete the writing task. The contest piece or fact sheet distribution is included in the contest time.
12. The contest facilitators shall collect the entries immediately after the task. They will ensure that the template filled up their name, school, division, coach/adviser and event indicated, before allowing the participants to leave the venue.

Transfer of Entries

1. In collaboration with the division organizers, the contest facilitators shall scan the entries and send the digital files to the regional technical team via email, Google Drive, or any reliable applications.
2. Registration forms should also be scanned and sent to the regional technical team. They will be used as references in decoding the winners' identities later.
3. The regional technical team will transfer the files to the appropriate folders in Google Drive, which can only be accessed by the regional technical team and the judges.
4. The judges will evaluate the entries and send the results to the regional technical team via email or Google Drive.
5. The regional technical team will consolidate the results and prepare the list of all winners based on the registration forms sent from the different divisions.

Declaration of Winners

1. The judges will pick the top three winners in each category.
2. The decisions of the judges are final and irrevocable.
