Recognition of Outstanding Performance on Gender and Development (GADvocate Awards) for Schools and Individual Teachers

Description	Details
a. Definition and Legal Basis	The GADvocate Awards for Gender and Development (GAD) are given in order to motivate, acknowledge, and reward the teachers and schools that have demonstrated exceptional commitment to promoting gender equality and women's empowerment. Recognition and Motivation: The awards serve as a mechanism to recognize the efforts of those who have made significant contributions to gender and development. They also serve to motivate others to strive for similar achievements. Promotion for Best Practices: By giving awards, organizations can highlight successful strategies and practices that have led to significant progress in the field of gender and development. These can serve as models for others to learn from and replicate. Awareness and Advocacy: The awards can help raise awareness about gender issues and encourage a broader societal commitment to gender equality. They also provide a platform for advocacy, pushing for continued attention and action on gender and development. Accountability: The awards serve as a mechanism for holding entities accountable for their gender commitments and actions. They reward those who are doing well, while highlighting those who need to do more. Capacity Building: They can foster a culture of continuous learning and improvement. By striving to win such awards, organizations are often encouraged to self-respect, assess their own practices, and strive for better. By recognizing and celebrating the outstanding achievements in gender and development, such awards play a crucial role in advancing gender equality and social progress. In the Philippines, the legal basis for promoting gender and development and providing awards in this field comes from a range of legal and institutional frameworks. Some of the relevant laws and frameworks include: The Magna Carta of Women (Republic Act No. 9710): Passed in 2009, this is a comprehensive law on women's rights and gender equality. It promotes the empowerment of women and ensures equal opportunities for men and women in social, economic, and political fields. The Women in Development and Nation Building Act (Republic Act No. 7192): This law promotes women's rights and their participation in national development. It includes provisions for equal opportunities in all government and private sectors. The Gender and Development (GAD) Budget Policy: This policy mandates that all government departments and agencies allocate at least 5% of their annual budgets to gender and development programs. The GAD Budget is used to fund activities that contribute to gender equality and women's empowerment. The Philippine Development Plan (PDP): This is a mid-term plan drafted by the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) that has specific provisions for gender and development. D.O. 32 s. 2017- Gender Responsive Basic Education Policy: This policy commits to integrate the principles of gender equality, gender sensitivity, non-discrimination and human rights in the provision and governance of basic education in the Department of Education.
