Asia-Pacific Youth Consultation on Education Beyond 2030

4 August 2026 (Tuesday)

Dear Youth from Asia and the Pacific,

Following the call to participate in the Global Survey to help shape the Post-2030 Youth Education and Learning Agenda, the SDG 4 Youth & Student Network, hosted by UNESCO, invites young people across Asia and the Pacific to take part in the Regional Youth Consultations on Education Beyond 2030.

The consultation is an opportunity to share your experiences, aspirations, and recommendations on:

the kind of world young people aspire to live in;

- the changes they would like to see in education and learning; and

- the actions and support needed to turn those aspirations into reality.

The outcomes of the consultation will contribute directly to the development of the Post-2030 Youth Education and Learning Agenda, which will be presented to world leaders at the 2027 Global Education Meeting and help inform future education policies and priorities.

Asia and the Pacific Regional Youth Consultation

- Date: Tuesday, 4 August 2026
- Time: 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. (GMT+7/Bangkok time)
- Languages: English and Russian

We especially encourage participation from young people aged 11 to 30, including those from marginalized, underrepresented, remote, displaced, and less-heard communities, so that a diverse range of perspectives from across Asia and the Pacific can help shape the future of education.

Help shape the future of education—with young people, by young people, and for young people. We also encourage you to share this opportunity through your social media channels:
