DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION REGION 11

Dear Dir. Farnazo,

As the Best Months begin, September is a good time to strengthen research and data analysis skills—whether you are working on an ongoing study, preparing academic research, analyzing organizational data, or gathering evidence-based decisions. For faculty members, researchers, and graduate students, this can be an opportunity to further develop your statistical skills and apply more appropriate methods to your research. For professionals in government, this is a chance to enhance your data analysis capabilities.

Our September 2026 training lineup offers practical learning opportunities using IBM SPSS and IBM SPSS AMOS, covering foundational, intermediate, advanced, and specialized statistical methods.
